DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 12-16, 18 and 20, drawn to a process of making a magnetic head including forming a groove on an inorganic insulation layer, classified in class 29, subclass 852.
  - II. Claims 17, 19 and 21, drawn to a process of making a magnetic head including forming and removing a resist (e.g. mask) pattern, classified in class 427, subclass 282.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions of Groups I and II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct if they do not overlap in scope and are not obvious variants, and if it is shown that at least one subcombination is separately usable.

In the instant case, the subcombination of Group I has separate utility, or a separately usable process, such as forming a groove on an inorganic insulation layer as encompassed by the utility (e.g. class/subclass definition) of class 29, subclass 852.

Moreover, the subcombination of Group II has separate utility, or a separately usable process, such as forming and then removing a resist as encompassed by the utility of class 427, subclass 282.

See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Art Unit: 3729

3. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. If applicant(s) elect the invention of Group I, then this application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

Species A, Claim 15;

Species B, Claim 16; and

Species C, Claim 20.

The species are independent or distinct because:

Species A requires forming a resist pattern and etching, not required in Species B and C;

Species B requires forming flattening a magnetic layer, not required in Species A and C;

and

Species C requires forming a soft magnetic layer, not required in Species A and B.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, Claims 12, 13, 14 and 18 generic within the invention of Group I.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

5. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
